Wrong Man Punished, Says Penn Swimmer

DHILADELPHIA, Feb. 25 .- It was learned to-day through

Jimmie Shyrock, captain of the University of Pennsylvania swimming team, that a formal protest has been handed to the Intercollegiate Swimming Association over the results of the Columbia dual meet held last Monday. Shyrock, after winning the 100 yard swim, was disqualified by the judges for fouling Vollmer. According to Coach Kistler and Shyrock, Vollmer swam out of his track into Shyrock's and should have been disqualified instead of lowing of this protest would give Pennsylvania the meet, for Columbia won by only five points, and would place the Red and Blue tied with Yale for first
